Rental Terms

Rental Credit: Rent that is paid on an instrument can be applied towards up to 50% the pre-tax purchase price of the instrument. Rental credit will transfer for fractional violins as the player is sizing up as needed. Rental Credit has no cash value, and expires upon termination of your rental contract.

*Payment plans for instrument purchases can also be arranged but are different from the rental program

What is included: Rental outfits include all standard maintenance including bow repairs, broken strings, repairs, rosin, shoulder rest, and case.

*Kun or Viva shoulder rest replacement cost is $35

 Repairs include most accidental damage - as long as it can be fixed at Riverbend Strings, it's included!

What's not included: Instrument loss or theft, and major damage (can't be reasonably repaired) are the responsibility of the renter.

Size-Exchanges: For renters progressing through fractional-sized instruments, exchanging one rental outfit for a larger size is straight-forward, and your Rental Credit continues to accumulate uninterrupted.

Payments: Invoices are sent monthly via email, automatically recurring on the date that the rental began. Payments can be made via credit card (auto-pay option available), e-transfer to riverbendstrings@gmail.com, or cash.

*We offer the option to pay a lump sum for six months of rent for the price of five. This lump sum invoice is due on receipt and will revert to monthly payments once the six-month period has passed unless renter chooses another lump sum payment. There are no refunds on lump sum payments.

A rental is a great way to have access to a high-quality instrument that is professionally set up, without bearing the burden of a large purchase price. We are excited to offer this service and hope it exceeds your expectations!
